Little Rock's Premier Wedding Venue

The Robinson Center Ballroom at DoubleTree by Hilton Little Rock

Ideally located in downtown Little Rock, the Robinson Center Ballroom is the ideal location for your unique, upscale affair. Surrounded with floor to ceiling windows, the Robinson Center Ballroom decorates your special day with breathtaking views of the Arkansas River.

The stunning new Robinson Conference Center is the perfect setting for weddings and receptions — it provides a dramatic space that both wedding planners and brides love.

With a flexible ballroom that can accommodate more than 500 people and space above with direct access to a 5,500-square-foot outdoor terrace overlooking the Arkansas River and the city's beautifully illuminated bridges, the center is an ideal wedding venue. Seamlessly connected to the DoubleTree by Hilton hotel, your wedding planning couldn't be easier.

For additional information, including rates and availability, please contact our Bookings Coordinator at 501-370-3246 or visit RobinsonCenter.com

PAGE 58 SHARP-DRESSED GROOMS

More and more grooms are starting to express their personal style on the day of their weddings, and we love it. Throughout this issue, we spotlight grooms with great taste, including Cordell Piggee, whose Little Rock wedding is featured in this edition.

PAGE 30 HONEY DO

The groom is often overlooked in the shower and registry department, which is why we're totally obsessed with the idea of hosting him a honey-do shower, complete with tools, gadgets and supplies that'll have him ready to roll as "man of the house."

ARKANSAS WEDDINGS IN THE NEWS

Why it's so great to say I do in The Natural State

e're totally biased, but Arkansas is by far the best state in the country to get married. And we're not alone in this conclusion. The Knot, She Finds, Bustle.com—they're all saying Arkansas is a great choice. In fact, the sites rate us as the most affordable state to plan a wedding.

Eureka Springs, Hot Springs and Bentonville receive frequent press for being great destination wedding locales. And according to national media channels, popular venues include Thorncrown Chapel, The Barn at Twin Oaks Ranch, Moss Mountain Farm, The Capital Hotel, Crystal Bridges and The Anthony Chapel. Meanwhile, Arkansas' photographers are being featured in the likes of Grace Ormonde Wedding Style and The Knot magazines and regularly on national blogs. Of course, we know what out-of-staters do not: Arkansas has an infinite list of top-notch vendors, venues and natural wonders. Arkansas is a hidden gem, and we like it that way! It means you lucky Natural

That's why we wanted to remind you why our state is such a fabulous place to say "I do" (not that you could ever forget). Here are the top six reasons why your Arkansas weddings are the absolute best:

State brides spend less than most American brides spend on their weddings - and your weddings are just as beautiful, if not more so!

CENTRAL LOCATION No matter where your guests are traveling from,

Arkansas' location in the heart of the country makes for reasonable drive times and fast, affordable flight options.

FOOD, FOOD, FOOD There is a never-ending menu of Southern goodies that Arkansans can serve to their guests to wow their palates. Soul food, farm-to-table, barbecue, pie, cheese dip, craft beer, food trucks... we could go on and on.

Knot. The cherry on top is that while our vendors may cost less, the quality of work is on-par with the best in the country.

NATURAL BEAUTY

Arkansas is one of the most beautiful states in the country. From pastoral Delta fields and the Ouachitas' diamond lakes to the picturesque Ozark mountains and northeastern timberlands, Arkansas offers its brides so many beautiful backdrops.

THE PEOPLE Not only are our vendors incredibly talented, they are some of the nicest, most caring individuals. Arkansas wedding pros love their brides and treat them like family. It's that good, old-fashioned Southern hospitality.

We repeat: Arkansas is one of the most affordable states to get married in the country. "The most affordable" according to The

FOUR DISTINCT SEASONS

Arkansas is one of the few states where you can experience all four seasons. Thanks in large part to mild temperatures, Arkansas brides can plan their wedding during any month of the year. We get dreamy dustings of snow, breathtaking fall foliage, abundant spring blooms, and verdant, sunny summers.

All my best,

Lindsay Irvin, Editor Lindsay@ArkansasBride.com

CONTRIBUTORS cheers!

JASON MASTERS

Photographer | Little Rock

We go way back with photographer extraordinaire Jason Masters, who has been shooting Arkansas Bride's fashion and floral sections for over a decade. Jason's talents are sought after by publications across the country, as well as by bridal fashion houses like Justin Alexander. Our photo shoots just wouldn't be the same without his sense of humor and signature cowboy boots. You'll find his beautiful photography starting on page 70.

ANGELA ALEXANDER

Hair & Makeup Artist | Little Rock

Angela is our go-to gal for bridal fashion shoots. She brings her sweet personality and unique talents to our set twice a year and transforms the models into blushing brides. Angela's work can be seen in publications across the state, and she's also available for wedding day makeup! When Angela is not running to her next photo shoot, she is taking care of her two little girls, Violet and Posey. Scope out her hair and makeup artistry beginning on page 70.

GINA TAVERNER

Owner of Clarksville Florist | Clarksville

Clarksville Florist is a full-service, family-owned flower shop that has specialized in wedding and event décor for the past 11 years. You can experience owner Gina Taverner and her team's handiwork throughout our fashion spread, beginning on page 70, as we asked them to create wild, botanical blooms for our shoot. Gina's incredible crew also pulled together a one-of-akind tablescape for us on page 98.

NATALIE SCOTT

Owner & Event Designer Natalie Scott Events | Little Rock

Natalie, owner and lead designer of Natalie Scott Events, is known for her signature organic design style. As a tastemaker for this edition, she curated a darling Southern brunch theme to put a new spin on the traditional rehearsal dinner (page 32). You can also see her design aesthetic come to life in our tablescape section on page 90. When she's not having fun at shoots with us, you can find her creating breathtaking and memorable weddings for her clients.

TOMMY & JAKE KEET

President and Vice President of Taziki's, Petit & Keet and Paninis & Company | Little Rock

Brothers Tommy and Jake Keet are president and vice president respectively of JTJ Restaurants. JTJ owns seven Taziki's restaurants in Arkansas — a popular catering option for wedding events — as well as the new Paninis & Company and Petit & Keet in Little Rock. Both Tommy and Jake's knowledge of design have been invaluable resources for the company. That's why we asked this talented duo to put their great taste to work and gather the trendiest groomsmen gifts around. See what they picked out on page 34.

ERIN WILSON

Owner & Photographer Erin Wilson Photography | Clarksville

Before Erin Wilson was one of the most sought-after wedding photographers in Arkansas, she owned a bridal hair accessory company, where she learned the art of product styling. In 2014, she started her own photography business, where her styling background has come in handy. She's since built a reputation for memorable styled shoot collaborations. We asked this talented lady to pull together a unique honey-do shower for our readers, featured on page 30. Her photography is also featured throughout this edition, including a real wedding on page 44.

SPECIAL THANKS!

THE CHANCELLOR HOTEL

Hotel, Wedding & Events Venue | Fayetteville

We also wanted to say a big thank you to The Chancellor Hotel in Fayetteville for generously accommodating our northwest Arkansas tablescape shoot. Katherine Kinney, the hotel's director of sales, was incredibly helpful and sweet as sugar. Learn more about this wonderful wedding venue (and fab hotel for your guests) on page 146.

WILDWOOD PARK FOR THE ARTS

Park, Arts Center & Wedding Venue | Little Rock

Not only was the setting perfect for our au naturel shoot, but Wildwood team members Leslie Golden, the executive director, and Ira Grace, the facility and rentals manager, were invaluable in helping us coordinate plans. Going above and beyond, Ira helped ward off one of the resident swans, who was not pleased with our presence, during one of the final shots of the day. Learn more about this wedding venue on page 144.

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the Albert Pike Masonic Center is truly an Arkansas treasure.

11 ARKANSAS WEDDINGS TO INSPIRE YOUR OWN

SYDNIE ROSS & SEAN LANDERS

OCTOBER 29, 2016 • CONWAY CONWAY MUNICIPAL AIRPORT

onway native Sydnie Ross first met her husband-to-be while attending summer camp, but back then he was just her friend Elise's "hot older brother." Later, Sydnie and Sean Landers were both on staff at Kanakuk. Sydnie says the way he served the kids made them feel like rockstars, but she was the one falling head over heels. Her summer camp crush evolved into a full-blown infatuation. The two began dating after that summer, and they've never looked back.

THE INSPIRATION

Sydnie and Sean's guest list dictated the venue had to be large enough to accommodate 1.000 friends and family. The lightbulb moment for Sydnie came when flying into the Conway airport at sunset, which provided a gorgeous backdrop. The airport venue was also symbolic to the couple because of the two years of long-distance dating they had endured. Instead of being a place for gut-wrenching goodbyes, airports now signify the beginning of happily ever after.

The couple left the design execution to their good friend, Jessica Zimmerman. Sydnie wanted to marry her love of eccentric and modern styles with Sean's love of the outdoors. Sydnie says she didn't want blush or nude bridesmaids dresses, because she wanted them to stand out on the miles and miles of concrete. So instead, the main colors were emerald, gold and wood.

HOW THEY CUSTOMIZED

Sydnie and Sean worked to make their large wedding an intimate affair. The entire evening was oneof-a-kind, from the tarmac ceremony to the hangar reception. The couple served a gluten-free cookie dough and peanut butter swirl ice cream, custom-made by Loblolly. They swapped the traditional guest book for a video booth inside of an Airstream. Part of Sydnie's mother's wedding gown was made into a #### garter and a bouquet wrap, and her late grandfather's blue shirt was sewn into the inside of her dress in a heart shape. For their exit, the couple walked out in matching leather jackets with "Just Married" painted on the back (a la Kimye), and stepped onto a private plane as husband and wife.

NOVEMBER 26, 2016 • HAMBURG

PRIVATE FAMILY RESIDENCE

nce Andrew Pierce and Ashley Hudson met at their church in Hamburg, they knew there was no going back. Ashley was only 17 and had never had a boyfriend, so the two took things really slow. But it was truly love at first sight. On New Year's Eve, right before the start of 2016, Andrew asked God to bless him with one last thing that year... that Ashley would say "yes" and marry him.

Ashley really wanted a woodsy, folk-themed wedding that truly represented her and Andrew. They combined a little bit of everything they loved for the big day. The venue chosen was on the back 40 acres of the land Ashley grew up on. From the trail they walked down, to the field the couple said "I do" in, Ashley had explored and played on all of it. On top of that, Andrew and Ashley had walked the area many times when they first started dating.

Since almost everything was DIY by the bride and groom, personalization was important. Ashley painted and made a lot of the decorations, and Andrew and Ashley's dad made the seating and ceremony arch.

"Our wedding would not have had the magical feel I had dreamed of if we hadn't had Anna's amazing floral work," Ashley says of the owner of Magnolia Belle Floral. "[The flowers were] truly breathtaking."

KELSEY HATCHER & WESTON DACUS

OCTOBER 29, 2016 • ROLAND MOSS MOUNTAIN FARM

hen you know, you know. That was the case for Arkansas natives Kelsey Hatcher and Weston Dacus. The two met after college, but they knew each other from playing sports for the University of Arkansas Razorbacks. Weston and his 2-year-old daughter proposed to Kelsey on her front porch, asking her to marry them both and become a family.

THE INSPIRATION

Kelsey and Weston wanted a casual, elegant feel to make their guests feel at home. Kelsey describes the overall theme as "urban organic," with mixed metals and organic green and white florals. Moss Mountain Farm had always been a favorite of Kelsey's, and it happened to make the perfect venue for the outdoor ceremony. Tanarah Luxe Florals created beautiful arrangements full of lush greenery and white roses.

HOW THEY CUSTOMIZED

Kelsey and Weston wanted to keep things simple. "I wanted the wedding to be about our family coming together, not all the fluff," she says. Only family attended the ceremony, making it even more meaningful for the couple. At the reception, Kelsey and Weston went with familystyle fare. Each guest left with a custom-made candle, with a scent the couple loves to fill their home with. Kelsey says her most worth-it splurge was her Vera Wang dress and veil from Stanley Korshak. And Kelsey's father, Greg Hatcher, gave a wonderful father-of-the-bride speech during the reception that she says will always stay with her.

OCTOBER 8, 2016 • LITTLE ROCK PRIVATE FAMILY RESIDENCE

achel Bradbury of Little Rock has a self-proclaimed competitive nature, especially when it comes to wiffle ball. While playing at The Hat Club Miracle Wiff charity tournament, Rachel noticed a cute, new guy from Mississippi dive in the outfield to save a home run. It was John Raymond Pitre, and Rachel says he nearly gave himself a concussion.

The timing wasn't quite right, but later they were set up on a blind date. "As I did my recon/social media background check," Rachel says, "I realized, 'Hey, it's the cute concussion guy from Miracle Wiff!" The two had their first date on Jan. 16, 2015, at So Restaurant. It was a home run.

A little more than a year later, John Raymond and Rachel returned to So. This time, he proposed.

THE INSPIRATION

Rachel knew she wanted a fall wedding but not one drenched in typical autumn hues. Instead, she opted for a unique palette inspired by the envelope liner of her wedding invitations. The liner featured anemone flowers in jewel tones that reminded Rachel of beautiful vintage wallpaper.

The venue, Rachel's aunt and uncle's home, also provided plenty of inspiration for the event. The outdoor space features lots of white brick, terraced patio areas, Italian cypress trees, and striking views of the Little Rock skyline. An arch in the middle of the yard donned wisteria and other wedding florals created by Cabbage Rose. This striking arch served as the backdrop for the ceremony and was repurposed during the cocktail hour into the reception band's stage.

HOW THEY CUSTOMIZED

Rachel and John Raymond wanted to include the special children in their lives. The duo decided on nine "littles" to make up a children's court, instead of a traditional wedding party. "Each kiddo had wanted to push guests to try new things. Rachel loves caprese salads in the summer, so Bistro Catering created a fall caprese station that included tomatoes, squash, grilled peaches and blackberries accompanied by various basil, cheese, meat and balsamic vinegars. In lieu of a groom's cake, the bourbon-enthusiast groom wanted to share some of his favorite batches with guests. Aaron Walters of Colonial Wine & Spirits served and educated guests on what they tasted at the groom's special bourbon bar.

SYDNEY SHAWN MCGEHEE & RUBEN MATTHEW MARTINEZ

SEPTEMBER 10, 2016 • PARON COLD SPRINGS

att Martinez and Sydney McGehee were introduced in 2013 by Sydney's sister. After meeting, the two hit it off and soon fell in love. Sydney was studying at Harding University in Searcy at the time and Matt was working and going to school at UCA in Conway. The couple dated for a year and a half before Sydney graduated and was able to join her family and Matt in Conway.

Lately, the two have enjoyed visiting Conway Escape Mystery Rooms. On one particular visit to the escape rooms—while becoming "bank robbers" and retrieving the bank's gold—Matt revealed a ring from a locked box and asked Sydney to marry him.

THE INSPIRATION

The color inspiration was a "fall transitional" feel, while keeping it formal with gold accents. They also used greenery to complement the natural light and openness of the venue.

When it came to choosing the venue, Sydney and Matt were having a hard time deciding between an indoor or outdoor ceremony. With Cold Springs, they didn't have to choose. Having the ceremony indoors provided an abundance of windows with an outdoor feeling, without the worry of bad weather.

HOW THEY CUSTOMIZED

Sydney and Matt chose to serve breakfast for dinner. The two incorporated all of their favorite morning-time foods including Sydney's mother's recipe for chocolate gravy, which was a big hit. Sydney says that the photography and videography where their mostworth-it splurges.

OCTOBER 1, 2016 • BENTONVILLE CRYSTAL BRIDGES MUSEUM OF

o amount of distance could keep these travel buffs apart. Fayetteville native Lauren Leatherby met David Justiniano of Bolivia while attending the University of Arkansas. Five years after their first date, with many travels and lots of long distance in between, the couple went on a trip to Iceland. David, an aviation buff, booked a helicopter trip. After landing in a remote volcanic area, he proposed.

THE INSPIRATION

Most of Lauren and David's friends were coming from different parts of the United States, and his family was coming from outside the country, so it was important that guests experienced the couple's favorite aspects of northwest Arkansas through their wedding. Since Crystal Bridges is a work of art in its own right, the couple only wanted to enhance the views with foraged florals expertly arranged by Tanarah Luxe Floral. "I thought the bridal bouquet - complete with blackberries, succulents and rosemary – was the most beautiful I've ever seen," Lauren says.

HOW THEY CUSTOMIZED

Lauren and David wanted to give their friends the chance to sit back and relax. Instead of a traditional wedding party, the couple had a maid of honor, best man and a children's court with nine little ones ages 18 months to 5 years. The littles initially walked the wrong way down the aisle, resulting in plenty of laughs. Since many of the guests were not from Arkansas, Chef Melody Lane designed a Southern-style menu, starring sweet tea-brined chicken with peach compote and South American touches to honor David's family, including Tres Leches as the groom's cake and giving out empanadas as a late-night favor.

OCTOBER 15, 2016 • SPRINGDALE • SASSAFRAS SPRINGS VINEYARD

ayetteville natives Cassi Carpenter and Savant Walker barely knew each other in high school, but after graduation the two hit it off. Five years later, the couple welcomed their son Karter into their lives. A year later, Cassi was away for a weekend doing clinicals for nursing school. When she came home, she immediately ran to pick up Karter. When she turned around, Savant was on one knee holding her dream ring.

TIARA JONES & CORDELL PIGGEE

JANUARY 7, 2017 • LITTLE ROCK • ALBERT PIKE MASONIC CENTER

ordell Piggee of Little Rock and Tiara Jones of Warren met for the first time at church while in college. The two later reconnected at an audition for "American Idol" in 2014. Although Tiara was dating someone else at the time, she remembers seeing him and asking God if he was supposed to be her husband. After throwing the fleeting thought to the back of her mind, both Cordell and Tiara made it to round two of "American Idol" auditions and ended up in Utah auditioning together. By May 2015, Tiara was single and Cordell was in pursuit. They've been together ever since.

MEGAN LINDSEY & BLANE HOWARD

lane Howard of Hot Springs and Megan Lindsey of Camden were introduced at one of his concerts in the summer of 2011. Blane is a country music artist and was the opener for Blake Shelton at Magic Springs in Hot Springs. The two became friends and started dating the summer of 2012.

Fast forward four years, Blane and Megan were on a trip to Las Vegas. On the second to last night, in a lounge at the Paris Hotel & Casino, Blane took Megan's hand and helped her onto a beautiful stage, where a piano covered with rose petals and candles awaited her. He asked her to sit down next to him and began to play and sing one of their favorite songs, "You and I" by Michael Bublé. When he finished the song, he asked her to marry him.

ryant natives Ashley Youngblood and John Reeves met in high school, but went on their first date 10 years later. Instead of cliché first dates, Ashley and John decided to show each other their own individual worlds—Ashley took him to a party for Democrats and he took her to the Wakarusa festival. After a year and a half, John moved to Fayetteville so they could concentrate on their relationship. John proposed to Ashley in the middle of a Ben Rector concert while their song, "Forever Like That" played. "It was so fun to later have that song play as I walked down the aisle," Ashley says.

CASEY HUNTER & DUSTIN BISSELL

SEPTEMBER 3, 2016 • ATHENS • ATHENS CEMETERY CHURCH & GROUNDS

asey Hunter of Newhope and Dustin Bissell of Dierks let fate (and the help of Casey's brother-in-law) work its magic at a cookout. A short while later, Casey was hired at Dierks High School, where Dustin is a coach and teacher. "We knew it was love when we realized we were best friends," Casey says.

Dustin proposed with the help of Casey's 5-year-old daughter, Blair. She held up a sign that asked if he could be her new dad. The sign also said, "Check yes or yes," but all three knew the answer was an emphatic "Yes!"

Casey says that many people living in rural Arkansas feel like they have to have their wedding hours away to find a nice venue. "I wanted to do the opposite," she says, "and bring all of our needs here." Ashley spent hours mixing and matching all the details, such as the groomsmen's ties and pocket squares, the bridesmaid dresses, and all of the dishes and glasses were separate pieces she'd bought at flea markets. And since Casey and Dustin really wanted their guests to have fun, they customized lawn games for everyone to play during the reception.

HEALTHY Roneymoon

Is your travel destination affected by Zika?

Go to www.cdc.gov/zika for CDC's updated Travel Guidance and interactive world map, to learn if your destination is affected by the Zika virus.

TRAVEL TIPS TO KNOW:

- Zika is linked to birth defects and developmental delays. If you are pregnant or might become pregnant, consider postponing any travel to affected areas.
- Use insect repellent to prevent mosquito bites—Zika is spread primarily through the bite of an Aedes mosquito.
- Use condoms to prevent sexual transmission of Zika.

  After infection from a mosquito bite, Zika can then be transmitted sexually.
- Use effective birth control to prevent unplanned pregnancy (implant or IUD).
- Returning travelers infected with Zika can spread the virus, even without symptoms. You should prevent mosquito bites for 3 weeks. Talk to your doctor about when it is safe to get pregnant.

If you have questions, or believe you may be infected, talk to your doctor.

10eas Natural State brides and vendors put their spin on cool wedding trends Puppies aren't the only furry friends we've seen cropping up in weddings. Horses of all shapes and sizes make adorable additions to your big day. Photo by Erin Wilson Photography www.ArkansasBride.com 113

A wedding party made up of mostly — or only children is perhaps the biggest trend of the year. In fact, three brides featured in our Real Weddings section put their spin on this idea. We adore the precious photos that result from having a handful of cute little ones all dolled up. Plus, shenanigans are bound to happen and provide lots of chuckles from guests in the audience.

PONIES ARE THE NEW PUPPIES

From doggie ring bearers and flower-girl pups to wedding portrait cameos and magazine covers, our canine companions have had their moment. This year, we're dying over a new trend - ponies. The fairytale vibes are out of control in these inspiration sessions dreamt up by photographer and styled shoot-extraordinaire, Erin Wilson (photo on page 113) and by wedding planner Jessika McCuin of JM Wedding Group (pictured left).

OLIVIA LOTT

WEDDINGS PLANNED IN ONE WEEK

This is actually a little risky, unless you have a talented wedding planner in your family like Emma & Paul Lalonde (Emma's sister is planner Anne-Claire Allen Owens). Still, we love the execution of her impromptu I dos—it proves once more how incredible our Arkansas vendors are. Even in seven days, vendors like Proposals, Hanks Event Rentals, Boulevard Bread, Goodwin Manor and Silks a Bloom can pull off a masterpiece.

SUPER STYLISH GROOMS

Wedding menswear has changed a lot over the past few years, and we're thrilled about it. There's nothing better than a sharp-dressed groom, donning a suit or tuxedo and cool accessories he loves. The confidence of a stylin' groom is a wedding photo game changer.

WHITNEY BOWER IMAGING

STEALING YOUR WEDDING INSPO FROM THE STARS

Bride Sydney Gibson Matusoff of Hot Springs did just that, deriving her ceremony décor from Kim Kardashian and Kanye West's all-white wedding floral wall. Better yet, with the help of her planner Randi Slick of Signature Events, Sydney was able to transition the flower wall from a ceremony backdrop to an Instagram photo-op for guests at her reception.

PLAYFUL HASHTAGS

A custom hashtag for your wedding is pretty much standard protocol these days, and we still approve. Just be sure to push the envelope, be unique and make sure to promote the hashtag in many places throughout the day. We particularly liked how bride and groom Kelby and Russell Denton used cocktail napkins to keep their hashtag top of mind.

CUSTOM WEDDING CREST

As a decade of DIY comes to a close, an era of sophistication is being ushered in with a vengeance. Brides are splurging on creative crests that are carried through everything from invitations and aisle runners to cocktail glasses and reception uplighting. We love this old-school spin on the common monogram.

SHEER BLISS Less is often more when it comes to tasteful wedding décor, especially in the instance of this gorgeously simple ceremony backdrop. Drape romantic fabric over a picturesque tree in a lovely spot that's large enough to host your ceremony. Any billowing in the wind will only add to the wow-factor of this easy idea.

CHIC BALLOONS They do exist. And we're starting to see Arkansas brides try their hand at this unique trend. Bride Cassie Carpenter and her planners at Bates-Reed Brides opted for a gathering of sleek white balloons with fresh fern accents - we are big fans.

A KID'S TABLE EVERYONE WANTS TO SIT AT

Put our place cards down at this table; this looks like so much fun! We especially adore the multicolored balloon arrangement for a festive centerpiece. Newlyweds Terricita LaShaun and DeJurne Mccall-Prince, you nailed it!

"ROCK WALL"

Talk about taking your theme to new heights. Bride Elizabeth Seng and her planning pros from Rachel Haynes Events used uplighting to create a giant agate feature wall, in addition to using agates in the florals, on the cake and in the invitation design. Rock on!

KELSIE & COLLIN

We love a good engagement reveal photo, and so do you! Kelsie and Collin's sweet proposal photo recently won our first-ever Engagement Reveal Photo Contest. Collin had some help from all three Arkansas State University spirit squads and their mascot, "Howl," when he proposed in January. Congrats Kelsie and Collin!
