HOT SPRINGS weddings

from start to finish

JUSTIN PALMER WEDDINGS

Who doesn't love a good destination wedding? With all the people you love in a brand new place, out-of-town weddings seem to possess a special element of charm. Now imagine having all that magic in your own backyard — sort of. Hot Springs is an ideal destination in Arkansas. Not only does it boast lush gardens, sparkling lakes and scenic mountains, but also provides an intimate, charming city where you'll find historic buildings and unique attractions around every corner. Plus, its central location makes it just short drive from anywhere in Arkansas.

EVERYTHING YOU NEED IN ONE PLACE

Hot Springs may be a relatively small town, but that works in a bride's favor. The abundance of easily accessible vendors makes this city a one-stop-shop and your wedding as stress-free as possible.

"My favorite part about being a wedding planner in Hot Springs is working with such a tight-knit community of vendors," says Randi Slick, owner of Signature Events.

Not only is meeting with your vendors more like visiting neighbors, but with various venues so close by, your combination of rehearsal, ceremony and reception spots is virtually endless. It also makes things like cake and floral deliveries a breeze.

TRUSTED, QUALITY PROFESSIONALS

You can find everything you need for your big day in the Spa City. From florals to catering, the city's reputable professionals have you covered.

Build your reception menu with sweets from Ambrosia Bakery and Taste of Eden Bakery. For the main course, choose from a long list of caterers like All About Catering, Catering Temptations, Black Swan Tea, Taco Mama, Rolando's Nuevo Latino Restaurante and Special Touch Catering.

When it comes to photos of the big day, two of the area's most reputable photographers are Benjamin Martin Photography and 25 Mockingbird Photography. As for videography, Capture the Moment Images & Events has Spa City brides covered.

"The locations in Hot Springs are definitely one of my favorite aspects of being a photographer here," says Amber Nolen, owner of 25 Mockingbird Photography. "There are so many untapped, natural and unique places to shoot."

Wedding décor is a breeze with Flowers & Home, who has more than 85 years of combined floral experience. Kelly Efird of Kelly Efird Flower Events also has decades of experience and is known for her unique floral creations.

A DIVERSE MIX OF VENUES

Whether you're looking for a waterfront view for your I dos or a lavish ballroom fit for a queen, you'll find it here. Probably the most well-known venue in Hot Springs is the Anthony Chapel, part of the 210-acre Garvan Woodland Gardens. With elegant floor-to-ceiling glass walls surrounded by the lush, verdant gardens, it's not hard to see why.

different such as the historic Hamp Williams Building for its urban, industrial vibe. The Warehouse is also a unique historic venue brides love.

The most prominent and historic venue in town is the Arlington Resort Hotel & Spa. This striking spot is a popular venue for rehearsal dinners, weddings and receptions. The Arlington Crystal Ballroom, Magnolia Room and Fountain Room drip with 1920s glamour. Two unique venues that share the romantic setting of Hot Springs' historic district are Rolando's Restaurante & Speakeasy and The Porterhouse, both perfect locations for a rehearsal dinner.

The Old Mill Chapel & Reception Hall, The Hot Springs Event Center, The Centre at Hot Springs, The Barn at Glazypeau Farms, 501 Prime and Ausley Family Farms—these are among Hot Springs' top venues.

STRESS? WHAT STRESS?

In a town nicknamed the Spa City, you'd be remiss not to have a day (or even a weekend) of rest and relaxation. Brides who wed in Hot Springs quickly find the experience is a lot less stressful with a masseuse. Two of North America's top 100 spas are in Hot Springs, including the spa at the Arlington hotel and Mountain Harbor resort's Turtle Cove Spa, which was named 2017's "Best Spa in Arkansas" and one of the top 20 spas in North America by Spa Finder magazine.

When it's time to get all dolled up for the big day, the beauty experts at Glam Girl Hair & Makeup by Julie will transform you with full-service hair and makeup. Her team specializes in on-location and day-of beauty services.

DRIVING DISTANCE

Hot Springs is only a stone's throw away from bigger cities, making it the perfect destination for your wedding.

Dallas: 4 h 22 min (285.6 mi)	Monticello: 2 h 13 min (115.9 mi)

TIME TO START PLANNING

No matter what dreams you have for your wedding, you will find the right people and places in the Spa City to make them a reality. From invitations and calligraphy (Hot Springs' own Lily Calligraphy Co. is fab!) to rentals and music (check out Elite Mobile Entertainment and Music by Aaron Balentine), you'll love hosting your wedding in Hot Springs. 6 TIPS for Planning from Afar

Planning an out-of-town wedding can be daunting, but we have a few tips from Hot Springs wedding planner Randi Slick of Signature Events to ease your fears.

HIRE A LOCAL WEDDING

PLANNER. "Face-to-face meetings are best, but they're not always feasible," Slick says. "That's why it's important to find a wedding planner you can trust." The planner will meet with vendors throughout the planning process on your behalf.

BE EFFICIENT. There are a few things you'll need to do in-person, so try to plan multiple vendor appointments during the same trip.

HIRE VENDORS IN PERSON.

Don't feel comfortable letting your planner choose your vendors? That's OK, Slick says. "Once you do your research [online], make appointments with highly recommended vendors." It's important that you get along with each other and that they grasp your vision.

BE MINDFUL OF GUESTS. Pick accommodations that are located within 10 minutes of the venue – within walking distance is even better. Guests will be on different budgets, so consider hotel affordability. It's also etiquette to offer transportation, if able.

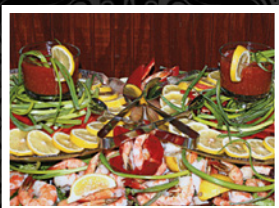

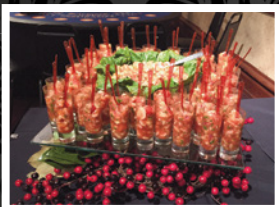

KEEP YOUR CELL PHONE HANDY.

Slick recommends frequent check-in calls and picture texts with vendors to keep you in the loop as the pieces come together. Inspiration boards that can be shared electronically are a big help too.

SET AN EARLY RSVP DATE. For destination weddings, Slick says out-of-town brides should put an earlier-than-usual RSVP date on the invitation's reply card. This allows more time to adjust for any last-minute additions or changes.

MARY LAUREN ENGLISH & GUY BLANN "BEAU" BRITTON, JR.

SEPTEMBER 16, 2017

A blind date set up by friends led Lauren to find her "Beau." After five years, Guy Blann "Beau" Britton, Jr. started working on the perfect proposal. He first got her parents' blessing, then set up a way to get Lauren to the Anthony Chapel in Hot Springs. A family friend who is a photographer called Lauren, telling her she needed couples for a Garvan Gardens promotional shoot. A few pictures in, Beau presented Lauren with a Bible inscribed with the name "Lauren English Britton" and dropped down onto one knee. It was Lauren's dream to get married in her home church. Beau became a member after moving to Hot Springs and both are active members. The First United Methodist Church, which is more than 100 years old and on the National Historic Registry, provided a beautiful backdrop with architectural details of limestone and wood. Lauren wanted breathtaking flowers and says the sea of roses and hydrangeas throughout the church and reception were everything she dreamed of and more.

CYNTHIA THOMPSON & JAKEB DURHAM

FEBRUARY 3, 2018

Cyndi and Jakeb are the result of a little family matchmaking. Cyndi's dad introduced her to Jakeb, a coworker's younger brother, at a lake cookout. Four years later, they were sipping drinks on the veranda of the Arlington Hotel in Hot Springs. Jakeb suggested they check out the newly renovated pool. Instead, he took Cyndi to a room filled with rose petals and balloons and asked Cyndi to spend her life with him. The Anthony Chapel in Hot Springs set the stage for the classic winter wedding. Navy bridesmaid dresses and gold set the tone, while Jakeb shook things up with a burgundy tux. While they kept the wedding ceremony classic, the couple shook things up at the reception. In addition to a small two-tier cake, guests enjoyed donuts from a special donut wall built by Cyndi's dad. For a guestbook, they asked their friends and family to sign a cartoon picture of themselves and their cat, Juice. Cyndi and Jakeb both love Mexican food and margaritas so that's exactly what they served.

BRITTANY CASON & ESTEBAN RODRIGUEZ

NOVEMBER 4, 2017

Tntamural basketball brought Brittany and Esteban together. After their first date, they never looked back. Esteban, from Puerto Ordaz, Venezuela, taught Brittany to salsa dance and cook Venezuelan food. In turn, Brittany taught him how to call the Hogs and what Southern food does for the soul. The couple loves exploring Arkansas' parks and trails, so it was only fitting that Esteban proposed on the Hemmed-In Hollow Trail near Ponca. Brittany was looking for a clean, earthy and industrial vibe for their wedding. Randi Slick of Signature Events helped bring Brittany's vision to life. Greenery was balanced with tall, brass candlesticks and gold terrariums with air plants. The merge of cultures was celebrated throughout the reception. Dinner was served family-style to keep everyone talking, laughing and passing food throughout the night, and imported Venezuelan rum was a bar staple.
